Twenty five (25) ECW (Episcopal Church Women) gathered at St. Mary's of Mo'ili'ili for the bi-monthly meeting of ECW. We began the day at 9:30AM with Morning Prayer by Fr. Gregory Johnson. The business meeting followed immediately after.

We are very grateful to Laurie Lee (ECW Treasurer) and a very active member at all meetings and ECW events for planning the November meeting at St. Mary's. She prepared light morning refreshments for the

The program for the day entitled, He Lei, He Aloha - A lei of love, the legacies of Queen Lili'uokalani was presented by Meleanna Aluli Meyer. Meleanna is an artist, art educator and filmmaker. The 45 minute program included readings from the Queen's autobiography Hawaii's Story by Hawaii's Queen and a 7-minute vignette inspired by the Queen. Meleanna asked several of the women present to be readers. It was both very touching and moving to hear words from a very long time ago that affected the Hawaiians of old. The Holy Spirit was ever present and moved the women to take up a monetary collection to help Meleanna's dream of making this vignette into a full feature film. She was very moved by this kind gesture of ECW. This program was very well received by all that were present.

After the program, the women gathered for a wonderful Korean lunch. We ate, talked story and gave thanks to the Lord our God for another wonderful gathering. Until we meet again, a hui hou, malama pono. Take care and God Bless.

The acolytes who's ages range from ten to seventeen, feasted on delicious gourmet pizzas at the California Pizza Kitchen restaurant in the Ala Moana Center. St. Mary's is blessed with twelve acolytes of which eight were able to attend the appreciation luncheon.
