Super Bowl Sunday brings Blessing and a Gift

Chad, Halaki and Ray Ancheta

On Super Bowl Sunday, Father David Blanchett, St Mary's photo journalist came dressed to catch all the action during the Sunday morning service and make a few calls.

As we see, the calls were easy. There was a blessing and a presentation of a gift.

Father Gregory Johnson lead a blessing of the Candles after which everyone took one home.

A Gift, a copper plaque depicting the Lord's Supper, was given by Halaki Ancheta, her husband Ray and their family members, Chad and Ethan.

Over thirty years ago, Halaki had received a handmade copper plaque as a gift from inmates from Hawaii, who were residents of a mainland correctional facility in the Washington Federal Penitentiary system close to Seattle. During visit to the correctional facility she danced the Hula and fellowshiped with the inmates from 1977-1979. Because they truly appreciated Halaki's dancing and talk story sessions, she was presented with a handmade gift of love which now hangs prominently within our St. Mary's sanctuary.

Thought this wonderful piece of art had been in Halaki's home since she first graciously received it, the family made a decision to bless the church with its presence. They wanted a "more fitting venue to be displayed"... "so more people could enjoy it."

The host for the February 8th Aloha Hour was Don and Denise Hargarten.

Many remarked how tasty the food and friendly the host were.

The Hargarten's are just one of many host that weekly blest us with the abundance God has given them.

"Do you here, in the presence of God and the community of St. Mary, renew the promises you made to love and cherish your partner above all others?"

I do! I do! I do! I do! I do!

We thank you, heavenly Father, for consecrating our relationships with your loving presence. Lead us now into ever deeper bonds of companionship; that we may enjoy the fruits of your kingdom with those we love; through Christ our Lord. Amen!

Once again, St. Mary of Mo'ili'ili will provide t-shirt bags filled with items of need for the homeless in our community. We will give them out March 29th during the Sandwich Ministry that Murray Cohen and his wife Young Mi coordinates.

We are asking you, the St. Mary's people in the pews, and our sister churches - Good Samaritan and St Luke - to assist the St Mary's acolytes in the effort by donating on or before March 22, travel size, toothpaste, lotion, shampoo, mouthwash, plus combs, Capri sun drink, energy bars, pocket tissues, hand sanitizer, tooth brush and pre-moistened wipes. On any Sunday bring the items in and give to the greeters. During the weekdays please give to the secretary Charlene Date. For an adult contact see: Fr David Blanchett, fatherblanchett@gmail.com
