

Interim: Dcn. Erni

This was a traumatic time for the remaining members. Among them were many old time members who remained to fight the good fight. Inactive members became active and many hidden talents appeared. The vestry appointed William Mok the new senior warden, whose leadership talents blossomed almost overnight as the needs of the congregation were great. At the same time, the new vestry was elected by the membership.

The vestry elected John Afong junior warden, who has performed his duties above and beyond the call of his office, also because the needs of St. Mary's was piling up.

Laurie Lee was elected treasurer and has done a magnificent job of straightening out the records.

Greg Holmes was elected chairman of the search committee to find a new rector. Among the other members who provided leadership were:

Thelma Pang, Shizuko Sasabuchi, Bill and Dorothy Sumida, Ruth Yoshioka, Larke Golaski and Ann Townsend as our Prayer Team; Bill Sumida and Ann Townsend forming our music ministry;

The Sunday program was reduced to one Eucharist service at 8:15 a.m.. By December of 1994, the Sunday School was restarted.

During the year, the Van Deerlin Building was rented to the Angels at Play for its preschool program. The Jeanette and Harry Weinberg Foundation gave the preschool $290,000 to meet expenses for starting a preschool. Various health and educational regulations had to be met before licensing could be obtained. Air conditioning and fire extinguishers had to be installed in the kitchen as well as other changes in the classrooms. The funds also helped to pay the rental fee for the use of the facility. Today, The Angels at Play Preschool is a very successful program on the grounds of St. Mary's

The Rev. Dcn. Ernest & Grace Uno

Musicians: Richert and Maria AuHoy, Ann Townsend, Bill Sumida, Kay Okutani

The old sanctuary was rented to the Chinese Alliance Church for its Sunday morning services.

Despite the busy schedule, the leadership did not forget to hold its annual picnic in August, and surprised the congregation with a luncheon in November.

The assignment of Deacon Erni Uno to St Mary's by Bishop Chang in September, 1994, was just what the members of the church needed. He and his wife Grace had been members of St. Timothy Episcopal Church for 33 years. One of the most important programs he set up at St Mary's soon after he began his work here was the Healing Service and Communion on Wednesday mornings in the old sanctuary. Those who worked couldn't make this service, but there were more than 10 when we had guests. At St Mary's, Deacon Erni collects perishable food items for St. Stephen's Church food pantry. He also started the "miles for pennies" for the Church Periodical Club. He must have collected a few gallons of pennies by now. But most important of all, Deacon Erni assisted the supply clergy in conducting Sunday services.

In addition to providing services at St Mary's, he also visited the home bound church members who were hospitalized, visited nursing homes and hospices. He also provided services to veterans and actively participated in the Hawaii Episcopal Pacific-Asian American Ministry. When called upon, he also conducted last rites and burial services. His wife Grace also was part of the choir and she taught hand crafts to those interested.

Deacon Erni's appointment preceded the calling of Father Longo by almost a year. After Father Longo was installed, Deacon Erni assisted him in the Sunday services, too. He retired from the active ministry in December, 2001, several months into the service of our current Rector, the Rev. Dale Hathaway.

Barbara and Fr. John Longo

The Rev. John Longo

The Search Committee called Father John Longo, who arrived here with his wife, Barbara, in June, 1995, to become our new rector. The following month, the church hired a new secretary, Janice Horimoto. She set the records, which had been untouched for more than a year, into shape within a short time, and the office has been a place of efficiency ever since. Jan kept the administration of the church in great shape during the more than two years that St. Mary's was without a rector after Father Longo retired.

One of the first actions under Father Longo was to change the corporate name from The Church of St. Mary's back to St. Mary's Episcopal Church. St. Mary's had been without a priest for a full year until Father Longo arrived. He and his wife Barbara helped a lot to heal the demoralized congregation, giving it encouragement and strength to carry on.

Our organist left us in 1996, and a newly hired one the following year also left. We were not successful in searching for an organist but this brought out talents among our members. Kay Okutani, Ann Townsend, Bill Sumida and William Mok took turns playing the organ and piano, and Leland Lee spelled them by supplying music with his violin, giving the service a sprightly uplift..

The usual maintenance of the church building and grounds were carried on by the Junior Warden with the help of faithful members of the church. The Altar Guild continued with faithful members. In 1997, four new beautiful sets of ecclesiastic colors of Super Frontals, antependiums, stoles, burse and veils were made for the new sanctuary by Altar Guild members.

Under the direction of Barbara Longo, various activities and lessons were made available to the teachers in the Children's Ministry. Some special activities were bowling and taking part in Oahu Episcopal Youth activities, and swim parties at the rectory.

Under the leadership of Geri Tom, there was more participation in Episcopal Church Women activities. Geri has been a long time member of the Diocesan as well as National ECW.

The Aloha Hour after the service allowed members to get together for fellowship. It was supported by many members of the congregation.

St. Mary's continued to take part in the Institute for Human Services under the leadership of Bemice Tawarahara. Together with members of the Church of the Risen Lord, the combined committee prepared meals for residents there. St. Mary's always prepare stew and rice with bread pudding. The last meal was provided by our group in October, 1998.

The Prayer Ministry has been a strong point in the recent history of St. Mary's. The Members of this group meet on Sundays before the service and also provide intercessory prayers during Communion for those seeking healing through prayers. Among these Prayer Warriors are: Bill and Dorothy Sumida, Thelma Pang, Ruth Yoshioka, Shizu Sasabuchi, Larke Golaski, Ann Townsend and Imelda Padasao. Bible Study has been another worthwhile activity at St. Mary's. Ann Townsend's group meets on Monday mornings. But in March, 2002, they decided to become part of the Wednesday Healing Service. Bill Sumida has a class after Sunday service and larger classes on Monday and Wednesday evenings, as well as a bible study prayer group that meets at St. Luke's Episcopal Church on Thursday evenings.

Money tellers: Ellen Hew and Annie Kau. John Afong, Setsuko Kouchi, Amy Ushijima and Millie Ushijima in the kitchen. Jan Horimoto, secretary.

The Alpha course started in January, 1999. Many found it to be of interest. One course was given when Father Longo was still here, presented by his wife Barbara who did an excellent job of presentation.

Father Longo took a three-month sabbatical from July through September in 1998, traveling to England. By July, 1999, he decided to retire from the ministry for health reasons and return to Oregon. St Mary's was again without a priest until September, 2001.

Interim

One of the experiments that has turned out to be a winner is the singing of praise songs for 15 minutes before the church service begins. Ann Townsend and Bill Sumida took turns each Sunday in leading the singing—Ann on the piano and Bill on his ukulele. Isamu Yoshioka put up a screen on the mauka wall on which the words are flashed for easier singing. This has been one of the biggest and most important changes in the service in many years.

After Father Longo left the church we were without a priest from July 1999 to September 2001. Deacon Uno performed most of the clergy type duties. He assisted the supply priests on Sundays and continues with the healing services on Wednesdays. He also continues with the homebound members, those in hospitals, nursing home and care homes. Also continued to perform funeral services.

The following priests served on Sundays and special days: Fathers: Burton L. Linscott, Norio Sasaki, Tom Yoshida, Greg Johnson, Timoteo Quentero and Frank Chun.

Geraldine Tom served as our Senior Warden from January 1999 to December 1999. Bill Mok was appointed Senior Warden in January 2000, Jan Horimoto took care of the day to day business affairs of the church and she coordinated the activities of the various ministries of the church. Setsuko Kouchi assisted Jan as a part of her office ministry. We subscribed to e-mail so as to be in closer touch with the Diocese and the National Church.

In July 1999 a new Mission Statement for the church was written by Greg Holmes, Elaine Arakaki, and with Edna Chun as chairperson.

"Sharing God's love in Jesus Christ" through Word, Sacrament, Prayer, and Service, enlightened and strengthened by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.”

A fund raiser to resurface our parking lot was conducted in July 1999. A total of $25,553 was collected. The rectory in Keolu Hills was sold in August 1999 for $338,000.

A Food Fair was held in November under the chairmanship of Bernice Tawarahara and proceeds went towards youth projects. Over $2,500 was collected.

For the first time in 5 years a Christmas Pageant was held under the direction of Pablo Cortez. Adults, youth and children participated.

The various ministries with very committed, dedicated members kept our church going. Those adults and children who did not belong to any of the ministries remained faithful by attending the Sunday services regularly. No one left the church as a result of us not having a priest. The music ministry is especially noteworthy, we had organists but due to various reasons we did not have an organist from late 1999. We had talents that we did not know existed, Kay Okutani, and Bill Sumida played the organ, Ann Townsend and Bill Mok played the piano and Leland Lee the violin! A godsend was the arrival of Maria and Richert Au Hoy in mid 2001. God must have known we needed help. Maria and Richert are talented musicians and they were willing to help us. Maria is a music teacher and she also has a beautiful voice and Richert can play the organ as well. Maria has organized a choir and they have been singing for us at the offertory.

Prayer ministries before the services with Ruth Yoshioka and Thelma Pang and during communion services with various “prayer warriors” provide solace and comfort to anyone needing special prayers. The Youth continue to participate in the services as acolytes and readers. Hospitality after the Sunday services is provided with our fabulous Aloha Hour offerings under the direction of Renee Hamatake, Bernice Tawarahara and Jane Oki. Its always a surprise as to what will be on the table, as various members share their special goodies with us. Father’s Day, Mother’s Day and picnics continue as a tradition at our church.

The Altar-Guild for the first time in the history of St. Mary’s has a male chairperson! Albert Nishikawa has brought a new perspective to this ministry, he is a knowledgeable carpenter and handyman. He has added cabinets, shelves, hooks and other utilitarian items in the sacristy to ease the work of the members. A core of dedicated members perform their duties each weekend and on special days. Gladys Miyamoto who has been baking our communion bread for the past 8 years continues to do this for us. Arlene Sato does our flower arrangements for the altar. None of the on-going ministries has stopped.

Setsuko Kouchi, Judy Fujii, and George Nakamura are our faithful ushers and greeters. They greet our visitors and welcome them to our church. They also see that the order of worship is carried out as written. George tells us that a priest told him that the first person who greets a visitor is very important and that they need to be properly dressed. The impressions that the visitor has of a church depend largely on how they are met and greeted.

A new ministry under the guidance of Greg Holmes is the Ministry for Motivational Development. Vestry has gone on retreats and a library has been started.

New Outreach and Evangelism activities have been started also. Sandwiches, beverage and snacks are being made once a month for

Norma and Franklin Chun, Fr. Kaneshiro

Picnic at Moanalua Park with Fr. Greg Johnson

Habitat for Humanity under the direction of Bernice Tawarahara. One of the most successful effort to provide evangelism in the neighborhood under the direction of Renee Hamatake was in providing school supplies to children in the neighborhood. Packets of pencils, tablets, crayons, folders, etc. were made. Approximately 30 packets were given out. The youth participated in this activity with Renee.

We have continued to provide staples for St. Stephen's food pantry, Amy and Harry Ushijima take the supplies to them each month. Garden ministry every Tuesday beautifies "God's Kingdom". Roy Horimoto, Jon Ushijima, and Albert Oki assist the sexton by trimming overgrown foliage, weeding, planting flowers, cleaning gutters, etc. In January 2000, John Afong resigned as Junior Warden after 5 years of devoted service. He was instrumental in keeping the church in good condition, he also did all of the negotiating of the contracts with the various organizations who rent our church and grounds: the sanctuary, preschool buildings, and our parking stalls. St. Mary's has been able to sustain itself financially largely due to the rental income we receive.

Jon Ushijima was elected to be our Junior Warden at the annual meeting held in January 2000. Our church has continued to look as well as it has due to the effort and craftsmanship of Isamu Yoshioka.

On Wednesday a soup and sandwich lunch is served to anyone who comes, and afterwards a healing and communion service is held. The soup/sandwich meal is coordinated by Setsuko Kouchi.

A new activity at the church is a potluck/ bible study/ music session on Friday evenings. This session sort of grew out of the need for a practice session for the choir. This activity is coordinated by Michael Tsuruda.

Ruth Yoshioka, a health professional, felt the need to meet the physical needs of the congregation as well as the spiritual needs. She noticed that many of the older members were under medical care for chronic illnesses common to the aging process. There was a need to prevent complications due to these illnesses so she started a series of health sessions after our Aloha Hour. We have had sessions on stroke, breast self-examination, and cholesterol awareness. Session on prostate problems, kidney diseases and diabetes will follow.

A ministry that is given very little recognition is the teller ministry. Each week two faithful members spend one to two hours counting the offering given so generously by the members. The counters not only count the pledges, but count the plate offering, specials, memorials, flowers, rector's discretionary fund, building, etc. separately, then total the entire amount then deposit it at the bank. Through the years the following are some of the members who so generously gave their time to this ministry. Aaron Soong, Aaron was a mathematical whiz, he did not need an abacus or a machine or fingers, calculators were not available at his time, he did it all in his "head". Others were, Lester Muramoto, Kenneth Yamamoto, Albert Oki, George Hebrank, and Maryan Bowen. At the present time, Annie Kau, Ellen Hew and Jane Oki serve in this ministry.

The Rev. Dale Hathaway

Bill Mok in his annual report for the year 2000 stated that we have been "ticking because of the love of God the Father, the mission set forth by Jesus Christ, the empowerment of the Holy Spirit..... we have it all, lets keep on ticking".

Our Annual Meeting for the year 2001 was held at the Tree Tops Restaurant in Manoa on January 27, 2002. Our new Rector Father Dale Hathaway had been with us for four months. Bill Mok started his annual report with a quote from Isaiah 40:31, "Yet those who wait for the Lord will gain new strength; they will mount up with wings like eagles, they will run and not get tired, they will walk and not become weary." The words “waiting upon the Lord” was his primary thought. We were without a priest for 1½ years, prospects were bleak, there wasn’t a single viable candidate to present to the vestry. Deacon Uno, Jan Horimoto, our secretary and Bill Mok our senior warden kept our church going. As Bill stated in his report it was “a long and enduring process but with a definite dramatic ending. It was nothing short of a miracle to witness how every detail fell into place from the time the vestry issued an invitation to the Hathaway’s to be our priest.” Bill further stated that he could have thought of a couple of pages to list the myriads of things that could have gotten in the way of Father Dale becoming our priest, but nothing happened.

Therefore, according to Bill, “There was no doubt that God had chosen Father Dale to be our leader and pastor and that this call is being confirmed daily since Father Dale began his ministry at St. Mary’s.” Bill stated that, “the waiting is over, we need now to mount up with wings like an eagle.”

Father Dale Hathaway, his wife Bridget, Lydia age 8 and Emma age 6 arrived from Michigan City, IN on September 7, 2001. Four days later the disastrous, terroristic attack of September 11, 2001 occurred. Father Dale was truly sent to us by God to give us comfort, strength, and encouragement to us to persevere in spite of adversity.

A much needed healing service was conducted by Father Dale on Holy Cross Day, September 14, 2001. This day was declared a National Day of Prayer by our President, George W. Bush. Approximately 80 people attended the service; people who were passing by, people from the neighborhood as well as our church members. Kay Okutani played the organ for us. It was a very comforting service. St. Mary’s is “mounting its wings like the eagle’s and is soaring”. New programs have been started, we’re learning new songs, changes have been made in our worship services.

A Vision: John Okutani

What has kept St. Mary's to continue? What makes our church "tick"? What is the "motivating or guiding principle of our church"?

Some say that, "What's Past is not Prologue." St Mary's began as a site for mission work by the Missionary District of Honolulu in 1902. In the hundred years that followed, clearly "the mission" of the body of St. Mary's has been to serve the community surrounding it and the greater Honolulu community in a loving, caring, and sharing way, through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ's love as exemplified in service, sacrament, and prayer.

Night Classes for adults, a girls day school; a neighborhood medical dispensary; care of homeless children; a pre-school on the grounds, are some of the ways which the body of St. Mary's with the help of our Lord Jesus Christ, has served the community. One can assume that church growth fluctuated with changing events of the time that focused the energies of the congregations in doing the Lord's work. One consistency though, has been our Lord's hand in this and his invariable imprint, it is on this basis, we construct a Vision for the next hundred years, relying on this "footprint" and direction given to us by our Savior Jesus Christ. It is clear then, what is past for St. Mary's is also prologue.

The Vision calls for an evangelism of service, sacrament, and prayer that continues to grow beyond the immediate community of Hawaii to the farthest reaches of the world, as accomplished today by our two parish missionaries, Hugh Kaiser and Chris Ako. A greater commitment in reaching out to the immediate community at large as the next influx of a "new generation" continues to be a part of this now "older" community.

A new facility (St. Mary's have had several in the past 100 years) embodying the direction and growth of our congregation, in a Vision that facilitates the Lord's continued plan for us. A facility that adds to our purpose in sharing God's love and contributes to our commitment to the teachings of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. A facility, whose use accommodates room for growth, technology, and our traditional values of prayer and sacrament, enabling the greater body of St. Mary's and the community to share and spread God's love in meaningful and helpful ways.

A continuation and greater expansion of our direct service to the community, caring for the needy, the un-churched, and less fortunate. Exemplifying Christian values of forgiveness, compassion, giving, sharing, gratefulness and grace, that go beyond deeds only and during times of crises.

From this Vision, it is only but through the Will and Help of God a plan and call to action will be put in place.

Celebration of a New Ministry, The Rev. Dale Hathaway
